

Open House at San Diego Health Center

The San Diego Health Clinic held an elaborate open house at the First Avenue facility. It was an informative and educational get together. The formal presentation by the staff and associates was followed by a grand and glorious dinner party. There was enough joy, merriment and spiritual enlightenment to set off an amber alert. The affair was healthy dose of positive Dopamine for the community

Peace and Dignity Runners Tie the Indigenous San Diego Community Together With a Grand Celebration at Chicano Park

The grand gathering of the Peace and Dignity Runners was launched at a fine dinner and fund raiser at the home of Olivia Puentes-Reynolds. Thoughts and prayers were shared as preparations were made for the next days festivities.

