

Friends, every day is a good day to pray.
Too often our reasons for prayer are sadden because of illness, or their passing on from this life.

Our Wildcat singer teacher Jon Mesa Cuero is again in the hospital with wound complications from diabetes (Grossmont, rm 329 bed 1).

Also, a long time friend and successful grant writer, Lorenzo Clark has passed on from the effects of Cancer. His gravesite services with Bird singers are this Friday, 7/20/12 11am at Singing Hills cemetery with a luncheon to follow at the Sycuan resort.

Also, tragically a daughter, Clarissa Brown, of our long time Viejas friend Bob Brown has passed on. Clothes burning 7/18/12 and the funeral for Clarissa Brown will be held on Saturday at 10 at the Viejas church.

We ask you and all our friends and relatives to add these friends to your prayers, for their comfort, in these times, Mehan, Aho.
