Leadership in Action Award recipient for 2012

presented at the annual Healthy Minds Luncheon

DAVE BIALIS - As Senior Vice President and General Manager of Cox Communications, Dave is leading the company's commitment to assisting organizations that provide support for those dealing with mental illness. Through the Cox Cares Foundation, corporate philanthropy and employee volunteerism, Cox supports programs that help families attain good mental health. Cox is committed to addressing community challenges and funding organizations that make a difference in this area.

Past Leadership in Action Award recipients

2011 - CHRIS VAN GORDER, FACHE, President and Chief Executive Officer of Scripps Health, honored for his commitment to mental health care and awareness within the health care setting and on-scene following disaster or crisis. He is a strong advocate for community behavioral health care and has expanded Scripps' innovative supported-employment program, A-Visions, to help more than 100 patients find greater working independence.

2010 - KATHLEEN SELICK, President and CEO of Rady Children's Hospital San Diego, honored for Rady Children's integrated pediatric healthcare system. Ranked among the nation's best children's hospitals, their Children's Institute of Behavioral Health provides comprehensive mental health and psychosocial services to children and families within a full-service pediatric medical facility, with state-of-the-art, cost-effective clinical programs available at outpatient clinics across the county.

2009 - DENE OLIVER, honored for his leadership as chair of The Plan to End Chronic Homelessness, during which he brought together nearly 100 community leaders, service providers and homeless experts to develop the ten-year plan and chaired implementation of the plan. The plan envisions providing permanent housing and supportive services for the chronic homeless, many of whom have a mental illness.

2008 - PAUL HERING, Managing Principal/CEO with Barney & Barney, LLC, honored for Barney & Barney's leadership in San Diego as the oldest and largest privately held insurance brokerage firm, promoting healthy work-life balance for both associates and clients by providing progressive employee benefits and wellness programs that address both health and mental health services.

2007 - MIKE MURPHY, President and CEO of Sharp HealthCare, honored for Sharp's leadership in San Diego as an excellent healthcare organization, with high standards of clinical excellence and a rich tradition of medical and service innovation.

2006 - DARRELL STEINBERG, honored for his leadership role as co-author of California's Mental Health Services Act (Proposition 63), an historic piece of legislation that put the framework in place to transform mental health care for California's children and adults, using programs proven to be effective.

2005 - RUTH COVELL, MD, Associate Dean & Professor of Family Preventive Medicine UCSD School of Medicine, honored for her outstanding achievements in the areas of community leadership, patient advocacy and the coordination of mental health services in San Diego County.
